DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claim 2 is objected to because of the following informalities: the claim should have the word "or" between the last 2 compounds listed in the claim to place the claim in proper Markush form. Appropriate correction is required.

Claims 4-6 and 10-14 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. these claims are drawn to the compounds of claim 1 for use as various things. It is noted that the intended use of the compounds is not seen to be a patentable limitation on the compounds themselves, unless they impart some structural limitation on the compound from which they depend, which they are not seen to do.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Art Unit: 1623

Claims 8-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, the definition of “n” is confusing. The claim states n is “2-6 carbon atoms of the phenyl ring optionally substituted with one to five substituents selected from group R1 wherein... R1 is hydrogen...”. At first, it is unclear how 6 carbon atoms of the phenyl ring can be substituted, as one of the carbons must be connected to the purine. Additionally, it is unclear why the phrase “is optionally substituted with R1 wherein R1 is H” is used. Stating a compound is substituted with H is not clear, as if the compound was not substituted, would there be no hydrogen atoms or any other moieties on the phenyl ring, thus leaving a charged radical? Clarity is respectfully requested.

Art Unit: 1623

Moreover, claim 1 is indefinite wherein the claim has lines drawn in the 1', 2', and 3' positions, which normally represent CH<sub>3</sub> moieties, however, the examiner believes applicants intended these to be hydrogen atoms.

Claim 1 is indefinite wherein the inclusion of parenthetical phrases leaves ambiguity and uncertainty as to whether the contents inside the parenthesis are intended as being that which applicant intends as their invention. In various definitions, applicants use phrases such as "(e.g. phenyl or biphenyl)". Likewise, the phrase "for example" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitation(s) following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Claim 7 is indefinite wherein the claim is drawn to pharmaceuticals comprising the compound of formula I, however, fails to set forth that which formula I is. The examiner is interpreting this as the formula I of claim 1.

Claims 8-9 provides for the use of the compound of formula I, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

All claims which depend from an indefinite claim are also indefinite. Ex parte Cordova, 10 U.S.P.Q. 2d 1949, 1952 (P.T.O. Bd. App. 1989).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 1623

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-7 and 10-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bressi et al. (J. Med. Chem., vol 43, 2000, pp. 4135-4150).

Bressi et al. disclose compounds which meet the limitations of those of claims 1 and 2 of the instant application (see 44a-59a and 44b-59b for example) and compositions comprising the same (page 4145 – column 1). They also teach to make them via nucleophilic aromatic substitution (pg 4136: chemistry section).
